

Fat-calculator for BARF-meals

Please download the fat-calculator onto your computer and enter the relevant data in the red marked fields.

The ideal fat content when feeding muscle meat is for adult dogs between 15 % and 25 %. If the fat content is below this value, fat should be fed, for example, in the form of beef fat.

Fat content muscle meat	%
Desired amount of muscle meat	g
Desired fat content	%

